Criteria:

1. Enrollment in meat animal project(s). (50%)
2. Leadership roles within 4-H, FFA, & species related organizations. (20%)
3. Any other meat animal project related activities and volunteer work within the livestock/rabbit/poultry industry. (15%)
4. Essay. (15%)

Guidelines for Preparation of Application:

1. Review your old record books, Supervised Agricultural Experience (S.A.E.), Member Evaluation Short form (M.E.S.) and other scholarship applications.
2. Type—you may use a computer generated copy. Limit your answer to the space provided.
3. To get a good perspective of all items called for in this application, thoroughly read the application before you begin to write. Determine the most appropriate category under which to report each of your activities or roles. (Example: Teaching showmanship to new members is related to each of the first three criteria, but you must decide whether you want it to be an example of the knowledge you gained in the project, leadership you have shown, or volunteer work. Then list it only under one category.)
